Global lives and the relevance of integrative geography

Globalisation, complexity, and environmental problems challenge traditional boundaries between disciplines, methods, activism and science, humans and nature. In his talk Jonas Nielsen will highlight the relevance of integrative geography in a world defined by connectivity and problems that scientists need to help solve.

16:00 Uhr c.t., Raum 0’119, EG
Erwin-Schrödinger Zentrum
Rudower Chaussee 26, Berlin-Adlershof

https://www.geographie.hu-berlin.de/de/institut/geographisches-kolloquium